Sponsor a Young Performer!

$300 per summer camp or $100 per workshop/class

FTF provides arts programming (shows, classes, workshops, summer camps, etc.) that is excellent in quality but also equally accessible to all students in our area. By sponsoring a student performer, you give that child a chance to experience the value of Arts participation, developing their own unique talents and finding belonging... without the hindrance of financial stress.

Sponsored students gain free tuition to one of our Youth Workshops/Masterclasses during the school year OR to our summer musical theatre camp. Each student also receives a BOGO code to attend the FTF MainStage Season with a friend or parent.

Sponsors will receive exclusive discount codes or BOGO codes for MainStage show tickets and will receive samples of the students' work in action!

Sponsor an "FTF Fellow"!

$600—$1800 per Fellowship

FTF is making the Arts more accessible to all young people, and staking our claim on the future of the Performing Arts in this area is through Fellowships. These are paid training opportunities for up and coming technical theatre artists. College-aged students studying Lighting, Sound, Properties, Costumes, Stage Management, Directing, etc. can apply as a fellow to work our professional shows undertake direction of older experienced pros. A nurturing company environment like ours will allow them to grow and be encouraged in their craft, while getting a valuable paid professional credits on their young resumes. Your sponsorship will make this training possible and will help FTF fill key positions to keep our seasons running!

Sponsors receive 2 free tickets in first tier pricing throughout our MainStage season; and will receive samples of their sponsored fellow's work in action!
